

GATE 2015 EXAM PATTERN

GATE examination has witnessed many exam pattern changes since its inception in the year 1983. At that time the number of candidates appeared were very less, may be 20,000 to 30,000. Examination was meant for admissions to Master's Programmed in IITs only. The trend has scene the descriptive pattern, followed by objective style with MCQs and finally what we had witnessed in GATE 2014. There had been various moves to conduct this examination in a more effective manner. Major among them was to have main and advanced as per IIT JEE pattern. Another option in the fray is to have GATE exam twice in a year. Suggestions have also been made by various governing bodies and consultancies to have GATE exam in line with GRE and SAT exam where in the student can appear as and when he or she desire to do so. The level of questions being asked also increases with the more number of correct answers opted. Merit is again prepared on the basis of the difficulty level of questions and number of questions being attempted.

So friends, please do not panic about GATE 2015 exam pattern. Just focus on the basics and concept building!!
